Reverence Home Health & Hospice receives award of excellence

03/03/2016 Grand Blanc, Michigan — Reverence Home Health & Hospice - Genesys Health System division - was named one of the Top 100 home health agencies in the United States for 2015. HomeCare Elite identifies the top 25 percent of agencies and honors them annually with the Award of Excellence.

Winning home health and hospice agencies are ranked by a collection and analysis of publicly available performance measures regarding quality outcomes, best practice implementation, patient experience, quality improvement and consistency, and financial performance.

The 2015 HomeCare Elite list is compiled annually by National Research Corporation and DecisionHealth to recognize the top performing and most successful home care providers in the United States.

"The 2015 HomeCare Elite winners deserve credit for demonstrating high quality care in their communities," reports Christine Lang, vice president of Product Development for OCS HomeCare, the sponsor of the award. "As quality care initiatives become top-of-mind for healthcare providers, we recognize this as a remarkable achievement."

Reverence Home Health & Hospice provides care statewide through the Michigan Health Ministries of Ascension – Borgess Health, Genesys Health System, St. John Providence, St. Joseph Health System and St. Mary's of Michigan.

Reverence offers a comprehensive continuum of home-based care, provided by a specialized, multi-disciplinary team who will partner with patients to develop a personalized plan of care.

The team includes nurses, physical therapists, occupational therapists, speech therapists, medical social workers, registered dietitians and home health aides, who work under the direction of the patient's physician.

Reverence Home Health & Hospice also offers hospice services, infusion services and grief support.

Services are available 24 hours a day, seven days a week.
